"Waste Time"

Don't wanna waste time
Is it a matter of mind
Don't wanna lose control
I've gotta say goodbye
We just couldn't get it right
It was a matter of time
All I wanted was to stay there in your arms
But when the door opened I had to say goodbye
And I knew that it was not our fate
But I waited all those years to hear you say ?I always loved you, only you?
I knew that it was just too late
Mine to the end no
Though I still have dreams of you and I together again
I can't afford to lie
I have to say goodbye
We didn't know the future but we did what was right
