river jordan, won't you wake my pharoah so he can teach my people to walk the straight and narrow come lie beside me in a horse drawn carriage drug through the thorns past the morgue, past the parish oh lord i wanna go back to the land that i once knew far past these fields of bloody snow

back to the sand
back to the sand
back home again

fuck the news
fuck the house of blues fuck my whole career you don't want me here

let me know where my love ones go it's not fair to keep it hid tell me what i did take me back to when the world was black before the sun was made a picnic in the shade oh lord, oh lord, i wanna go back to the land i once knew

far past these fields of bloody snow
back home again
