Get the boys turn on the show
Get the cameras set to go
Go tell the host he's on in five
It's the day of the big surprise

Oh the waves will rise and crash
And they'll pound your ship of glass
And the boy in the crow's nest will cry
"It's the day of the big surprise"

See how the harbour lights do burn
See the wheel of fortune turn
It'll turn so fast the gears will bind
On the day of the big surprise

Your jazzy band has lost it's swing
Revolution's lost it's ring
When all your love has been a lie
It's the day of the big surprise

You got his letters in your purse
It's got me thinking which is worse
The day I fell into your eyes
Or the day of the big surprise

Grab your shovel, let's get to it
There's no one way of how to do it
And there will be no woes or sad goodbyes
On the day of the big surprise
