I remember Mexico
my thoughts are always there I still feel the loopy sand and the magic of this land.

Mexico

I remember Mexico
it's warm and burning sun and the village that I know is so full of life and joy.

Mexico

Senoritas dressed in green in yellow and in blue in their dark eyes I can read that Mexico love is true.

I remember Mexico
my thoughts are always there
...

Mexico
Senoritas dressed in green
...

See their skins burned in the sun caressed by the wind feel their kisses warm and soft they are really made for love. r face was a face I love and I knew I had to run
