I can't forget the love I had
Yes it's true I am so sad
She's so sweet
so tender and so kind She's my world my ev'rything
And I know that it's a sin that her face is always on my mind.

Now I am walking through the rain and I'm only feeling pain
I have lost her and there's nothing I can do
In my eyes she was a Queen
Like no one I've ever seen
Now I'm lonely and she's so far away.

Sweet sweet love
oh my sweet love
Sweet sweet love
oh my sweet love.

I hope she will come back to me
'Cause she still has got the Key
The room of love is open all the time
I dreamed of her the other day
It was on the first of may
There I saw her and once I fell in love.

Sweet sweet love
oh my sweet love
Sweet sweet love
