When I move
You move with me
I feed off you
You feast on me

And what I see
You cannot see
That when I move
You move with me

Where's this small
Dead hand that creeps me
I am biting it to its very bone
Collapsing with everything new on me
Until it gets so very old

And what I see
You cannot see
That when I move
You move with me

There is this third body
Spinning fast
Reducing me
Into a relapse
With its crippled flaps
Slow motion dims
Sweetly parasite
By butterfly wings

And what I see
You cannot see
That when I move
You move with me

All that is old is new again
Each other spies
We're condemned
Everything is everywhere
The butterfly effect

And what I see

You cannot see
I'll have to kill you
Before you kill me

Everything is everywhere
The butterfly effect
Everything is everywhere
The butterfly effect
Everything is everywhere
The butterfly effect
Everything is everywhere
The butterfly effect
