Sleeping in I'll begin again to shed this skin
And be born again
We'll drink to forget and drink to forgive
We'll rethink our futures
We'll rethink our futures

I can't remember what he said
When he left my bed and left my life last night
But I'll be thinking about you
I'll be thinking about

So stay if you care, won't you stay if you can
And lead me to your promised land

So stay if you care, won't you stay if you can
And lead me to your promised land

Fall in, fit in, the broken hearts club dance
Fall in, fit in, the broken hearts club dance
Fall in, fit in, the broken hearts club dance

So stay if you care, won't you stay if you can
And lead me to your promised land

So stay if you care, won't you stay if you can
And lead me to your promised land
