Ten thousand years of suffering
Is what they've given me
In spite you can't control your tongue from the blasphemy
Why should I be made suspicious
Like I'm ashamed
Are you kidding me?
It's sickening
The wicked of the world

Conniving trouble
Deceitful people
Fooling themselves

Guilty, guilty
You're no different
So filthy, filthy
Mess you're living in
Dirty world
It's all around you now
The righteous are covered in blood

What will it take for you to believe
That it starts with you
Yes it starts with you
You can lie to yourself but it's not so forgiving when Violence is never ending
If silence is a way of pretending
That you won't stand accused
Like you're not hiding from the truth

Conniving trouble
Deceitful people
Fooling yourself

Guilty, guilty
You're no different
So filthy, filthy
Mess you're living in
Dirty world
It's all around you now

Look here comes the devil
And he's gonna wanna make his way inside
And he's gonna wanna find someplace to hide
So you better stop running from yourself
Look here comes the devil
And he's gonna wanna make his way inside
And he's gonna wanna find someplace to hide
So you better stop running from yourself

Ever closer
Getting louder
Preying on the death around us
Ever closer
Preying on the death that's found us

Guilty, guilty
You're no different
Dirty world
Now stop, stop, stop cause you're so

Guilty, guilty
I'm no different
Mess I'm living in
Dirty world
It's all around me now
The righteous are covered in blood

The war of the worlds
And these worlds are colliding
We're sickness and dying
Cause everyone's lying
And everyone's trying
But no one is fighting
The weakness inside us
Destroying us all
