"The Dumbfound Game"

You say you won't be
Fooled again,
Without a simple please.
You drug me there and back
And then, you tried to make your peace.
It's just a simple mistake.
Tomorrow I won't relate.
I'll only wonder if the question remains.

Could someone show me how to feel?
Take heart, be still?
Forget this ringing in my ears?
Breathe deep, be here?

A bother makes a sacrifice.
I hope the pulpit sees.
But in our debt you can't decide.
Another violent seed.

It's always the same,
I'm playing the dumbfound game.
It's as if I couldn't see
The callous I've come to be.
