Baby I thought I was up to date
Now they say I need an upgrade
Baby I just, I just can't wait
For all these 20 gigabits to imitate

I can't keep up
I can't keep up
I can't keep up
I can't keep up
I can't keep up
I can't keep up
I can't keep up
I can't keep up

Baby I thought I was up to date
Now they say I need an upgrade
Baby I just, I just can't wait
For all these 20 gigabits to imitate

Thought you were the first to have a telephone
Thought you were the first to have a telephone
Thought you were the first to have a telephone
But now everyone has got a dog and bone

Baby I thought I was up to date
Now they say I need an upgrade
Baby I just, I just can't wait
For all these 20 gigabits to imitate

Baby I thought I was up to date
Now they say I need an upgrade
Baby I just, I je-just can't wait
For all these 20 gigabits to immitate

Can't keep up
I can't keep up
I can't keep up
I can't keep up
I can't keep up baby
I can't keep up

Like James Cameron special effects

Special effects
Special effects
Special effects you ain't seen much
I take my bare hands and I make it go up
I make it go down
I make it go left I make it go right up and down
You need the special effects
It comes from your mind
