Revolution Song (Don't Build A Monster) Â© 2009

I know you think you've got a better way
But don't build a monster on the way
I know you're driven by somethin pure
Baby don't go out and start a war

...You think you've got a better way
But don't build a monster on the way
I know you're driven by somethin pure
Baby don't go out and start a war

Let's go on a trip to the stock exchange
I know you'll like it there
You wanna change the world gotta
Know bout stocks and shares
It may be time for revolution, it may be dinner time
Please baby, think it through
Before you cross that line
Here's that book that you were reading
Nineteen Eighty Four
You're obsessed with world corruption
Do you think you can be really pure
I know you think you've got a better way
But don't build a monster on the way
I know you're driven by somethin pure
Baby don't go out and start a war

...You think you've got a better way
But don't build a monster on the way
I know you're driven by somethin pure
Baby don't go out and start a war

Some guys work for the banking system
Some say that's not fair
Some say let's have a revolution
Revolution's in the air
Revolution's in the past
Come on baby leave it there
I know that you're only human
Are you sure you really care

I know you think you've got a better way
But don't build a monster on the way
I know you're driven by somethin pure
Baby don't go out and start a war

...You think you've got a better way
But don't build a monster on the way
I know you're driven by somethin pure
Baby don't go out and start a war

Twentieth Century was a bad and a good one
In many ways
Baby why use a metaphor when the World is crazy...anyway
