Forever in my heart, you'll always be
A part of me yeee
Forever in my head, i'll take care
Of you
Here are my feelings,
Whenever you will need, i'll be there
For you
We're acrobats looking for balanceÂ...

Pure love you complete my opposite part
So i need youÂ...

Raindrops tears are falling,
Catch me, now i'm floating
But in your arms i'm home again
Together forever

Forever in our lives, we'll always feel
A karmic deal, yeee
Together we will breath, to blow sploil away
Here are my feelings
Forever in my thoughts, the best part
Of you

We're acrobats looking for balanceÂ...

Poor human beings walking blindly to see what's Inside their soulsÂ...
Raindrops tears are falling,
Catch me now i'm floating,
But in your arms i'm home again
Together forever
Remember the days when we were childÂ...
Never forget it and we won't cry again
