I want you to feel me baby

I want you to understand me baby

This is it yo, no bullshit

No jokes, no games

This is it yo, fo real

I see it happenin' man

It's about to go down

For all of us (fo real)

I see you swinging, I see you noddin' to it

It's about to go down for us, word up man

We almost home

We almost at the finish line nigga

It feel good, don't it? Oh!

And it's ova!

I can go home and chill

(Feel it, yo)

[Verse 1]

It's a long process from bar 1 to bar 16 and

Writin in my notebook from morn' to evenin

But my fam still not believin' - in my bed late

At night with my eyes closed often dreamin'

And zoned out I'm goin' out fuck it I'm home now

Arrestin' the rhythm I'm a rolling stone now

Making my own way from stone cold days and long nights

But who could feel my sacrifice

Cause they ain't half as nice and couldnt' understand

How I feel when I'm on the track board turnin the knob switch

Moms keep talking that old "get a real job" shit

And that's the kind of thinking Phonte got a prob with

Solved it - my blood fam on the bandwagon

Can't believe the man put his plan into action

They rather that I choose a different plan for my passion

Couldn't understand I demand satisfaction

[Hook]

They say you might be crazy
and sometimes I agree
You and I know that's not all that you are

They say you might be crazy
? baby
You and I know that's not all that you are

[Verse 2]

Yo, it's a new day it's time to see
I got a seed, Amaya, the love of my life
Best believe, plus I still got love for me I'm doin this for her and me, take mics and make currency

Steady worryin' yo, I wish I had a clone of me
Man this ain't the way it supposed to be
My daughter's mom wishin she was close to me
Holdin' me, instead she's lonely - and loathing
Complaining that her life's competin' with mine
Cause I be out of the house for weeks at a time
And she be stuck at home playing housewifey with an attitude
Before we had a kid, we should've had a clue
I fell asleep with this beat on repeat
Repetitively, life seems to grip me
I'm trying to be a better man, please believe me
Ready and god willin if you ready to teach me

[Hook]

They say you might be crazy
and sometimes I agree
You and I know that's not all that you are

They say you might be crazy
You and I know that's not all that you are

[4 bar bridge]

(Real talk, yo)

[Verse 3]

Everybody gotta way to try to be the man
Some write rhymes others move kilograms
You ain't tryna play yourself with me neither man
Because I was dealt I can play 'em with either hand (c'mon)
I gotta be the plan, put it in motion

A nigga on the grind I'm proceedin with focus
I know that makin my moves ain't a part of your plans
But understand that that ain't all that I am
I was lost in the ?
Got a call from a man with a studio he bought with a grand
Feel like destiny was in the palm of his hand
Real shit we can all understand (check it out yo)

[Hook]

They say you might be crazy
and sometimes I agree
You and I know that's not all that you are

They say you might be crazy
You and I know that's not all that you are
