I'm sitting here,
Trying to write you this song.
I want to tell you,
About how I'm feeling.
Because I can't,
Get you out of my head.
And I can't stop,
My heart from beating.

And when this song is over,
Will you tell me how you feel.
Or will I write another,
While my heart heals.

Every time,
I feel I'm close to you.
I just want,
To take you into my arms.
Give me one chance,
I'll never let you down.
I only ask,
Because I care about you.
