Things are looking up, I say
Things are really going my way
About as much as I'd expect
And I don't think I can take another day
So here's to the memories
Here's to the worst times of my life
Though they are gone
I see them in my reflection
And it troubles me, and I...
...Never meant to be so dumb
And I never really had much fun
Memories still haunt me
Sometimes I feel like there is no escape Might as well propose a toast to the times I hate the most

So here's to the memories
Here's to the worst times of my life
Though they are gone
I see them in my reflection
And it troubles me, and I say...

Here's to the coices
The ones that made me feel like I was going to die
Though they were wrong
I've lived beyond bad decision
I've been worried. I've been tried.
So here's to the memories
Here's to the best of times
Here's to the worst times of my life
