"Colors Of The Light"

Wind stood still and my feet were cold
Was a lightning storm as the story unfolds
Colors of the light and the sky was blue
Sounds of spring in the morning rain
And the silence grew too loud

Seemed unreal
Darkest blue I've even seen
Seemed unreal
Makes you wonder, woo yeah
Where's your mama at

Seasons change and we can't hear
Truth of knowledge brings me pain
Big mama's work you take for granted
Sounds of spring in the morning rain
And the silence grew too loud

Seemed unreal
Darkest blue I'd even seen
Seemed unreal
Makes you wonder

Don't bring me down
See the lightning
Don't bring me down
