"Destroyer Of Worlds"

Mystic powers control the circle of fear silently the monster dictates its flow to where hope becomes nothing and hate alters everything come forth, bringer of pain and evil and uphold my ring of fire take leave, seeker of flesh and death thy are the dwellers of endless mire weakling, your cries mean nothing to me why do you challenge my infinite strength? for I have become death the destroyer of worlds bound are the hands to grasp you near silenced is the tongue that speaks the words you need to hear

our spirits will carry the memories of truth
our spirits will fade
in moments of time
