down in rio
i can't sleep no
getting crazy dreams again

about hotel rooms crazy nights through hoping to find that one good friend

so as the days fly
i wonder why
i can't sleep again

so i stroll down to
third avenue
just to see her again

oh senorita
can't you see her
dancing on the boulevard

oh senorita
can't you see her
dance for me

feeling undone
i get love struck
i feel my spirit calling wild

back to the young one down in san juan
beautiful angel child

she's so lovely
she's so pretty
in this hotel promenade

makes it so damned hard
