I know you
I've walked in your shoes
Next to the girl
Who's givin' you them blues

Now there was a time
She used to be mine
Sad but it's true
I used to be you

You're the lucky one now
I've changed somehow
With all your smiles
[Incomprehensible]

It won't let you be
Even in your street
Sad but it's true
I used to be you

Then comes the day
She'll just turn away
By the end of the night
I'm out of your life
Sad but it's true, I used to be you

Then comes the day
She'll just turn away
By the end of the night
I'm out of your life
Sad but it's true, I used to be you
Sad but it's true, I used to be you
