It's on now
Look at what we have here
You understand what we goin through today?
You understand who you fuckin with?

[Billy Danze]

Oh what you thought we wasn't comin back? The last time we rapped
A lot of niggaz that yapped, hit put in they place
For fragile-ly flossing, makin me wanna stick this llama and this lauson, up in they face
(IT'S THE WORLD'S FAMOUS) You ain't gotta tell 'em
We still at it, we still batted, they still doubt it (OH!)
We do it like we do it (OH!) with nothing to hide
Hollerin Brownsville (DON'T FUCK WITH THE PRIDE)
From a world down inside (WHERE) killers and vandals train in rugged terrain to maintain handles (FIZZ!) Nobody touchin him (WILL!) Still double clutchin
'em
Please believe I'm out of your league (DON'T FUCK
WITH HIM!)
Extrordinary rap kid, don't get yo' young ass bumped off and dumped off the Brooklyn Bridge
I got a chip on my shoulder (AH!) and an extra clip to fit the heavy shit on my hip and my holster

[Chorus: sped up "Take a Minute" samples]

[Lil' Fame]

It's for the listeners - for those that have an ear for this Straight from Jamar-rrrrrrrocko in the mix
Keep the mic crystal clear when he spit
He do it for thugs huggin the block and he's straight from the bricks
Go get your mac homes, it's Fizzy Womack homes, he back homes
He crack bones and crack domes you get your back BLOWN
We don't write battle raps for yo' ass
