I took a drive last night
I turned down our old street
Passed by your old house
And the front porch where you met me
Knock on the front door
Can you come outside
Let me ask my momma
Who looked at me and smiled

In '79 we played outside when it got dark we said goodbye
In '82 after school I'd walk you home
In '83 gave you a ring out of the coin machine
In a tree, on one knee I knew what you'd say
Man, it seems like yesterday

Well our old highschool looks the same
I miss those Friday football games
And they tore the drive-in down
Where we went on our first date
And then we graduated

Moved on with our lives
Started growin older but didn't realize

In '89 we learned to drive, 12 o clock we said goodbye
In '92 after school I'd drive you home
In '93 we turned 18, I gave you my class ring
In my car where we parked by the river bank
Oh yeah it seems like yesterday

Drving down that road I realize
Ain't it funny how time goes by
Staring out the window watchin our kids play
It wont be long until they say...It seems liek yesterday

I took a drive last night
