Who are you to say what's best for me? When everything you do revolves around you.
And how am I to breathe? When everything I did revolved around you.

Am I supposed to be strong without you, when I can't
even think straight?
It was for the best, I know the truth but I can't feel a
thing
I wanna feel something, I wanna feel the...

Who were you to leave so easily? When everything I did was for you.
And how am I to breathe? When all the things I do remind me of you.

Am I supposed to be strong without you, when I can't
even think straight?
It was for the best, I know the truth. but I can't feel a
thing
I wanna feel something, I wanna feel the...

I wanna feel the pain.
I wish I could feel something.
I wish i could feel you again.

Am I supposed to be strong without you? I can't even think straight.
It was for the best, I know the truth, but I can't feel a
thing
I wanna feel the pain. Pain's better than nothing.

But who am I to choose what's best for me? If my mind is so consumed by you.
And doesn't this cut deep? Cause I lost you, but you lost me too.
