Now I really know why they call this fool The Grouch
The nerve of this fool just coming.. out of nowhere, into my room..
"ZHE GET THE FUCK OFF THE PHONE BITCH!
GET THE FUCK OFF THE PHONE!"

[The Grouch]
There is nothing.. more upsetting.. than expecting something that never comes..
Trying to use something that doesn't work.. or finding something that isn't what you thought it was..
It frustrates the fuck out of me

I try to be optimistic, but I get pissed it never really works out the way that I had wanted
And I'm talking about life on the whole It doesn't feel too right when you do not meet your goals
Hold, up wait a minute fuck this state I'm in it too deep
But weepin over spilled milk, that's a lost cause Though my skills outshine my flaws so any pause..
.. is always too long I, gotta get a move on Those who do the do-wrong when it comes to me they never shoulda been the ones to be doin it in the first place secondrate work is not acceptable I make my shit to be respectable and when it's not that's really fuckin off my plot and my mindframe I find pain and dissapointment, it hurts more than a scrape without ointment, even when infected Can't expect to wreck the mountain when you doubtin your material
It's your ability overshadow circumstances and glances from the crowd turn to puzzled looks Readin books don't really help, wealth it isn't dealt right Messages aren't felt like intended And the wrong man's commended for the right jobs despite the work I'm puttin it, just to get my foot up in the door

"So how you feel? Frustrated, irritated.."} (4X)

[The Grouch]

I move quietly, misunderstood often
All I want's a good toss and, she wants to tease
I need to sell in quantities, they wanna pay later
I gotta, get ahead but you try to play hater
I stay major in a minor league, find fatigue easy Whenever I look for help, somebody else misleads me Feeds me false information, haltin my pacin Slowin my progression, I'm showin my aggression tore up my obsession like a lemon Sour attitude and you wonder where it's stemmin from Dude, I live a Family Feud Glued to the dream my worth'll be seen before a pre-teen's manly, understand me how I don't even feel myself, unless I jerk fast Work ass off no cash stash goes so fast Assholes talk shit daily
