[The Grouch]

Some-sometimes I just try to relax Kick back, put my feet up on the table and be able to enjoy life Often times I can't be caught up in so much activity don't got time to view the landscape Fools is always hittin me up to do music but I just wanna lay down These females is either trippin or never around and my sound is never quite the way I want it But somehow, some way or another I manage to find fun in this life I lead So I travel on with my brothers sure of that If you don't feel it, so be it -- I still exist
And in my world, I'm the King of this shit
