".. shall be great tribulation.. and a time of trouble will hit the world such as was not since the beginning of the world known nor shall ever be again.."

[The Grouch]

I ATAK like P-Minus on the finest tracks I make Activate my talents show the world how I escape
No wait for class to break I'm livin life around the clock
I might regret it in the end but you might end up gettin shot on a walk to see your grandma in the park on quiet Sunday
and, one way or another, umm, life is unpredictable My little brother's rich and Wolfhawk Tommy he's a father Aesop's got a car and they say, armageddeon isn't far But who are they? I don't sweat 'em, even though, umm deep in my heart I know that, TV's got some hella good shows
And oh the internet? That shit's off the hook
I drop a book, in a second, being stuck with, techno-logical advancement, the shit we're all entranced with that show little value for another human's life Zoomin right past the point for a joint or some alcohol and beatin on a loved one? C'mon, waht's wrong with y'all

Chorus: The Grouch (repeat 2X)

The world is a crazy place
A smiling face may, or may not be friendly Good things have side effects, bad things benefits
I wanna live until the endathis, universe

[The Grouch]

Universe { echoes and fades } ..
Fucked up tunes and verses, curses and drivebys Unheard opinions, bad beef and greasy fries Teachers who are unwise, preachers between young thighs
Guns knives and power in the wrong hands, landlords crooked cops and those damn whores Look at the shit we stand for Plan for a perfect life, ended up gettin jerked and strife lives in the family and, nobody understands me when I speak about it (you too?) I doubt it, doubt it Nevertheless I struggle, try and get my bubble on Stumble 'pon a little light I'm tryin to magnify I'll be damned if I don't fit into the plan up in this lost land

I paid my cost and a, little bit of extra Only fresh effects I saw came from ?? and Corey Shaw Life has me in awe, a little wild and too raw It's true y'all.. I'm scared, and unprepared But know in life you motherfuckers, just don't care

Chorus

[The Grouch adlibs til the end based on the chorus]
