Who's that screaming?

straight from the heart, that's how i write man basic is smart but that's how i live i wanna be that so i gotta say this now it's part of me, calling me, follow me in watch watch watch watch what you ask for you just just just might get it you act act act like you want more Grouch says that yes he is they say that it never rains in southern california they lied, i'm in my studio famin' lotta people die, the big wave came in gotta love the life i lead and how it keeps changing age and wisdom come together like a couple who love well i bust another nut then i buckle up my belt if i could sell the world my story i wouldn't be broke the world has got enough for all go on and eat folks but i don't mean meals that are square, nope i see myself greater than that man i'm a player and that's the old school clean kinda adolescent teen kind you should know what i mean right there mr.binage can you manage i'm in it to break limits make them smile not to grimace 12's wolfling out 10 inch thought's to endless talk to build men it's all too relevent, raw, yet eloquent

you act act act like you want more

basic is smart but that's how i live
it's part of me, calling me, follow me in.

ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh they say that people are strange, when you're a stranger that's true i'm out cyberspace lurcking lotta people know i did too much working i had to put the bottle down to keep on working searching, find who you are and then decide who you're gonna be they don't go together you're forever just wondering if you could see the future right now you wouldn't be lost cuz you could shape tomorrow today that tip is free boss i do mean without restraint i see this world as a canvas, get the paint and that's a candy place not the earl shy cheap coat you try to compete with that you can't listen fellow can you follow no yella i rock hella level head don't swell up as more good develop thought's endless talk to build men

basic is smart but that's how i live

you act act act like you want more
