Take what we want like a proud bird of prey
We might just take your soul
Castrating jackals that stand in our way
So the seed shall never grow
It's the Aryan way stand with pride wait for the day
When the filth that surrounds us shall no longer stand in our way
Wait for that day
Shed not a tear as the blood hits the ground
From the first kill to the last
Just like the tanks that are crushing the bones

It's a necessary task

CHORUS:

You live a lie and swear by your hand
Don't be afraid to surrender
A soldier shines and always obeys
Your dead will bury you one day

If you think you can hide in the dark
You're a fool and you won't get away
Sympathy at the end of a gun
Is more than you'll ever deserve
