

Gargoyle "Final Victory"

Visit "Final Victory" on MotoLyrics.com

Suddenly without warning they came plundering their foe

Tell the world the giant sleeps no more Like the wrath of god above the nations fall at will Who'll be left to count the final score
If the wings of freedom take you soaring through the night

Tell the world that it's over and done
Although the battle's just begun no victor will arise
In the end still nobody has won

As the lights go black just like a plague the panic grows
Witness the calm before the storm

Unsurmountable chaos breaks the people scream in fear
Cowering like mice so true to form
If the wings of freedom take you soaring through the
night
Tell the world that it's over and done
Although the battle's just begun no victor will arise
In the end still nobody has won

CHORUS:

The end may be near but there's nothing to fear
The end is no final victory
So now we can see what the future is to be
The end is no final victory
