

Gargoyle "Nothing Is Sacred"

Visit "Nothing Is Sacred" on MotoLyrics.com

Walking aimless through the street like zombies we march on
Into the world of the dead
Blinded by truth sometimes we stray from the path
Have you forgotten the word, forgotten the word

CHORUS:

Nothing is sacred, nothing is sacred anymore
Nothing is sacred no, nothing is sacred anymore

Echoing throughout the land the word is spoken clear

But the meaning is lost
Fooling yourself deceiving the world with your lies
God only knows where it ends
Mastering the miles that lay removing beasts at will
A balance of sin she will forget
Fossil fruits we've raped them all digging deeper still A finite surplus my god they will forget, forget
