I saw my better half,
The better half of a decade,
Slip through my hands inside her hands inside my
pockets.
When she reached for her advantages,
I should have done something.
I saw my baby boy digging his own hole,
Keeping alive family traditions.
When he lied about intentions,
I should have done something.
I should have done something.
Well, I blame myself for everything,
It keeps my conscience clean.
I've got bandages to prove it,
To prove it.
I saw my better half,
The better half of a decade,
Slip through my hands inside her hands inside my
pockets.
When she reached for her advantages,
I should have done something...
