forgive me for running off to find the one things i have to do
each night you can fall asleep assured that someday i'll be coming home to you these constant reminders in everything i see the chance of a lifetime... what a great place to be oh amy
don't hate me for running away from you
oh amy
don't hate me
i'm still in love with you i'm sorry i can't be everything to you your place is at the heart of what i do everything's for you
every time i run away it's easier to stay at the heart the hearts is you in everything i do
