investigation
no destination
i'm pending litigation and i'm losing all my patience cuz you've got to know that i'm not coming home i promise you're all alone and i'm feeling like a mocking bird sublimination foriegn operation lacking information for the people of my nation cuz this might be the one now i'm feeling strength could this be it i'll stand alone and i'm feeling like a prison guard watching every step you take making sure you appreciate cuz i can't stay awake i'm sinking and i know that this can't wait cuz soon i'll see the ghosts and i'm feeling like some dexidrine
its calling me
see you when i get there...
