Last night
You took me down in diamonds
You said you liked my nylons, well
Oh yeah

My head got kind of hazy and I was not bored
Tender sweet morning and golden boy
You're a vapor in the moonbeams
Tennis shoes and blue jeans
Our eyes down in the snow
Oh, here we go tonight
Tonight

My light is going to find you in your glass gown
Your angel hair hanging down
Ride a white lion through the jungle
Giddy up silver ponies, oh

Tonight, tonight
I'm going to find you in your glass porch
Lighting the night with your crimson torch
I'm not trying, doubt will be crossing
Flying through the air is so...oh

I gallop through your hair
Soft as midnight air, oh

Last night
Last night we danced in colored lights
