"Divide And Conquer"

Hate is our instructor
The seeds of our destruction
Lead you into sin then forgive you for your crimes
Appeal to your passion until rage turns you blind
Kill in their name, you've become a mercenary
Now all you cherished is gone
Your hands soaked in blood
They like telling lies to keep
You under their control
Teach you to despise
Your friends will turn into foes
When you realize that hatred
Was their only goal
All you cherished is gone,
Your and soaked in blood
Gaze at those you've conquered
See the lives you've shattered
Creator of sorrow
Slave to your anger
Millions will follow And bleed for your hunger
Divide and conquer Gaze at your reflection
Your soul has been forsaken
