Do you know that this is love?
And if you could read my mind, you'd see

Thank you, for giving me the world
And thank you for being just my girl
I want to be with you, the whole night through
And start it all again.
Cause if I miss the chance of true romance
Ill never see my fantasy again...Oh no.

You know that I would give you everything
Why should we live, apart like this?
I am, your night in shining armor, yes I am
And I want to be with you, hope you feel it to.

Because I'm not wasting my time, you know I do appreciate.
Things we have done of late.

Thank you girl for giving me the world,
And thank you just because you are my girl,
I want to be with you the whole night through.
And start it all again,
Cause if I miss the chance of true romance
I'll never see my fantasy again...Oh no.

And girl I wish that you could only see,
That I could be, your destiny and then
I have to steal a rainbow, I will try
There's no way I am giving up
And I know that I'm in love
And if only you could read my mind
And see I do appreciate, the things we have done of late

Thank you girl for giving me the world,
And thank you just because you are my girl,
I want to be with you the whole night through.
And start it all again,
Cause if I miss the chance of true romance
I'll never see my fantasy again...Oh no. X3
