I never thought I needed anyone for anything.
I never knew the meaning of a moment shared.
I wouldÂ'nt cry when everybody else was breaking down,
I couldÂ'nt see the point of lovers holding hands

Chorus
Until I saw you you caught me unaware
I wouldÂ'nt know the first thing that you did
But now my world is in your hands

I never wondered why the stars were shining in the night
I couldÂ'nt care if they were covered by a cloud
I never took the time to watch the sun go up or tumble down
You know I donÂ't recall when last I had a dream

Chorus

I never whispered words of nothing in a lovers ear
And I never felt alone if nobody was there
I couldÂ'nt care about the solitary world I had
And only now & then a smile would cross my face

Chorus
