Just because Iâ€™m a little different
That donâ€™t mean you can walk all over me
Just because I didnâ€™t have the chances That you had, it doesnâ€™t mean that I got to live, in misery
And now that you think that you know who I am I hope youâ€™re gonna help me on my way

Tell me is it right, or is it wrong
Am I weak, or am I strong (Tell me Baby)
Will I make it, or will I fall
Would you be there through it all
â€™Cos this is who I am

Just because Iâ€™ve been a little foolish
That donâ€™t mean that Iâ€™ll forever be a fool, no no
See my point is, that everybody makes mistakes
But that makes us who we are
And thereâ€™s one thing that I know, is that the future is so unpredictable

Tell me is it right, or is it wrong
Am I weak, or am I strong (Tell me Baby)
Will I make it, or will I fall
Would you be there through it all
â€™Cos this is who I am

And through it all Iâ€™ve realised
And through it all Iâ€™ve opened my eyes
And through it all Iâ€™ve understood
That this is who I am

Tell me is it right, or is it wrong
Am I weak, or am I strong (Tell me Baby)
Will I make it, or will I fall
Would you be there through it all
â€™Cos this is who I am
