Caught within my evil spell
Now it's time to burn in hell
You were fooled, no return
Just a doll for him to burn

See the reaper in his eyes
Messenger, prince of flies
Brain washed with sin and death
Time to burn my evil wrath

Evil spells, evil spells

Bring the children down to burn
Once you fall, no return
Sin takes you by surprise
On this backwards hell bound ride

Gates of Hell drawing near
Satan loves the taste of fear
Quenching all with black desire
Burn your souls in furnace fire

Evil spells, evil spells

Evil spells of the dead
Messengers of your death
Falling endless in your tomb
Locked within infernal doom

See the reaper in my eyes
Messenger, prince of flies
Warlock's voice surrounds your dreams
Baking soul within your screams

Evil spells, evil spells
