"Eyes To See Ears To Hear"

(Music : Rutan/Azagthoth/Lyrics : Vincent)

Darkness - swallowing all in its path

The blind leading the blind and the "flock" is ever confused

Who has the gift of healthy sight and mind ?

Who can withstand while the others are blown away ?

Eyes to see ... what the others see not

Ears to hear ... the voice of the elders guides

Eyes to see ... and the blind; they wither away

You fools ! These eyes are never for you

Darkness - corrupting all in its path

Greed leading the man to blindness, suffering

And ever foretold ... the meek shall have this earth

Alas without sight they will only be left with demise

Worlds apart are they and I

My world remains in sight

Their lives - despair

The "I" and "They" cannot compare
