The sofa feels like home, when you're sitting beside me

Let's burn the telephone, keep 'em guessing 'till Monday

It's time we look at the reasons for fighting, I'm all shook up

With the wind coming through, oh please don't let go

We're like a pair of falling leaves, you and I

The red and orange, the brown and green against blue sky

Against blue sky

We sit all night and just bask in the TV, carpe diem ain't

All that easy, it's time we look at the reasons for fighting

I'm all shook up with the wind coming through

Oh please don't let go

We're like a pair of falling leaves, you and I

The red and orange, the brown and green

Against blue sky

Seasons change as do we, as do we

And colors fade and crumble down to the ground

But love me still til we touch the ground
