

Ghost Vs Sanne "Oh My"

Visit "Oh My" on MotoLyrics.com

I want fun, but have none.
Don't wanna live a life that's dull.
I wanna live it to the full. We're gonna die.
Even if we try, we can't stop the clock from ticking, so
I don't wanna live a lie

// Oh, how I wanna feel that something in this life's for real.

Don't wanna keep it in no more.
Oh my, the spinning wheel is driving me insane for
real.

Ain't gonna take it anymore.
Open the gates and let it flood.
Pump it through my veins like blood.
Sweep me off my feet I'm ready to fall //
This pretence no longer makes sense.
I've been at it for too long and this is not where I belong.

I want fun, we're gonna have fun.
'Cause that's what it's all about.
There's nothing more to figure out

// CHORUS //

I'm at the edge and I'm ready to jump.
There's a long way down so hold me tight.
Never ever wanna hit the ground.
So carry me to the light, carry me way up high.
You're for me.
Please let me be all for you and everything will be alright.
You're for me.
Please let me be true to you and heaven be right here
inside

// CHORUS //
