

Ghost Vs Sanne "Sweet Release"

Afraid, alone, Iâ€™m on my own, a stranger to the world.
Unseen, unheard, a fate unknown, a shell without a pearl.

Awake at night, staring out waiting for a sign.

Something that tells me, that tells me, Iâ€™ll be fine

// Come alone, sweet release take the load off of me.
Take me home, sweet release Iâ€™ll be as strong as I can be.

Come alone, sweet release. Come and take me all the way.

Take me home, sweet release.

Come and make a brighter day, take me home //

A word untold, a book that no one read.

A broken heart in the dark, a light never shed.

To cry for help, is all thatâ€™s I can do and someone will listen, someone will tell me, that thereâ€™s hope for me too

// CHORUS //

How was I supposed to know?

No one told me how itâ€™s done.

Had to find out by myself so Iâ€™m standing here alone.

All I want is that you take me, take me home
