(I can't understand why)
People think they are mature
They let everything fall apart
That something could happen
It just scapes from their hands
For being afraid to talk clear

I can't understand why
I can't understand why
I can't understand why
I can't understand why

I can't understand why
Everything you've got
Is good for you
And that what following you
You think stopping brings
You disgrace
And drops you
In a pool of
Continuous desperation
Why do you let
Yourself
Be followed?

I can't understand why (I can't understand why)
You leave your reasons for fear
I can't understand why (I can't understand why)
You hide from hearting yourself
I can't understand why (I can't understand why)
You lie to avoid them who help you
I can't understand why (I can't understand why)
You think the best is to escape...

Nobody should
Cry for something
What is a solution
Tears without suffer
Only make

A sad trail because of problems

Nobody should
Cry for something
What is a solution
Tears without suffer
Only make
A sad trail because of problems
Will find you wherever you are

Use your brain
And get take off
All your anger
To receive all
The beatings
For your enemy
And be able
To strike back
With such power
That you will end
Up conquering
Everybody
Taking advantages
Of your silence
Push him away
Forever

And giving you back your lost energy
Attracting to you friendship and understanding

I can't understand why (I can't understand why)
You leave your reasons for fear
I can't understand why (I can't understand why)
You hide from hearting yourself
I can't understand why (I can't understand why)
You lie to avoid them who help you
I can't understand why (I can't understand why)
You think the best is to escape and shut up
Shut up, shut up, shut up, shut up, shut up, shut up, shut up, shut up!!!
