My heart goes out to those who lost on the cusp on the way to falling in love You didn't fold it up, so you fold it up and then hold it up and say I wasn't in love If the heart's enough to love and down to trust I would suggest that I I'd fold you up and then hold you up and tell everyone I was really in love
If it's proper not to speak, not have a drink, say anything then I'd I'd pour it out I'd drink it down and tell the world we are running this town
If the worlds too big to rule then we'll stand on stools overlook the fools yeah We'll float it up and we'll load it up steal the love and cheers with the sun
When the sky is all too bright, we'll dim the lights and block our eyes yeah We'll fold it up we'll hold it up cause we held it up we're still in love...
