An ordinary world
with all the broken people Hanging on for light
Struggling to survive
And how can I complain about the weather
When I see the others pain

My my it's serious
Why I'm so delirious
How can I explain, can I explain
the reasons why I stumble 'round in vein

I hear it on the news
Blinding are the headlines
Read between the times
The truth is compromised
Shattered promises
Can't see tomorrow changing for the best

My my it's serious
Why I'm so delirious
How can I explain, can I explain
the reasons why I stumble 'round in vein

My my it's serious
Why I'm so delirious
How can I explain, can I explain
the reasons why I stumble 'round in vein
My my it's serious
Why I'm so delirious
How can I explain, can I explain
the reasons why I stumble 'round in vein

Wish that I could see an extraordinary world
Changing for the best
Changing for the best
