"Under My Skin"

You done it this time like never before over my limit can't take it no more My blood is boiling can't sleep at night awake in a cold sweat redy to fight I'm like a time bomb ready to blow chains can't hold me come on lets go you're the reason I love to hate And what you choose will decide your fate

I'll bring you down with me cause I hold the key Jailed in your sin 'cause You're under!! Under my skin

Ready for battle swinging the chain I'm seeking a vengeance for life and pain I'm breathing fire can't hold it back so lock your doors and prepare to attack I'm the fighter the man and the boy and it's my instinct to seek and destroy When you hear my battle cry don't you expect to live prepare to die

CHORUS

Exploding in your ears I release your inner fears And I'm crawling up inside underneath your very hide

I got you cornered your back is to the wall My gun pointed straight at your head pulling the trigger so nice and easy I can't wait to fill you with lead
