Go to bed,
you've thought too much for one day,
gotten mostly nowhere.

Go to bed,
the world is too much for one day,
so start it over.

Start your car,
go wherever you're going to go,
but know that it is nowhere.
Fall in love,
you've wanted to for so long,

it's time to get that over with.
Go to bed with someone you'd like to go to bed with, and see what happens.

Thank you for this beautiful new day, it's forever.

Today is our day to go nowhere.....
