I walked right by you
Couldn't see inside you
Didn't know what I knew
Lost for so long

And the thought of knowing
The way that you stared
How I was so scared
Didn't know if I should dare

You wrapped your eyes around me
Someone sees what I see
Love it finally found me
Waiting for so long

So Long
Waiting for so long

Through the years beside you
There's nothing I would not do
Couldn't live without you
Who knew love could be so strong

So Strong
Our love grows on and on
So Strong
Our Love grows on and on
