The temperature is rising,
the clock is running out.
I'm finally recognizing,
what this is all about.

It is all over now,
It's time to turn and run.
We'll live to see tomorrow,
if we forget what we've done.

This is the end of our time,
I turn and leave you behind.
There's nothing you can say,
So, just walk away.

You've made me full of regrets,
I'm looking for a light.
You've made me want to forget,
'cause all we do is fight.

(I feel I'm going insane)
I feel I'm going insane
(I feel I'm not the same)
I feel I'm not the same

This is the end of our time,
I turn and leave you behind.
There's nothing you can say,
So, just walk away.

This is the end of our time,
I turn and leave you behind.
There's nothing you can say,
So, just walk away.

This is the end of our time,
I turn and leave you behind.
There's nothing you can say,
So, just walk away.
