This is our world,
World of reggae music,
Where Jah truth lives within,
This is our world,
World of reggae music
Everybody is welcome within,

This is our world,
World of reggae music,
Where Jah truth lives within,
This is our world,
World of reggae music,
Everybody is welcome within,

The other day I met a little youth around the way, Postmen him said start ask me questions about black history,
Him said because the school him go them not go teach em anyway,
Plus all him knows about colonial life and slavery days,
So I try to tell him understand we as African descendants,
From the tribes of abash Zulu Masai and not to mention,
Ajani all is you and I seek truth and see through lies,
The reason why we chant with Morgan Jah Jah children unify so

Yo, this ain't no fly by night.,
Trying to reach to the heights of the of the most high,
Taking you through the seven letters of .Rasta Fari,
He yo it's Jah teaching us livity in this time,
To our ancient forefathers, mothers sons and daughters,

Before there is peace voted,
We want to see at least see some of what our prophets quoted,
Respect nature and the hand that molds it,
A slight difference in mankind,
Whether it is color or religion all plain vision is a state of mind,

This is our world,
World of reggae music,
Where Jah truth lives within,
This is our world,
World of reggae music,
Everybody is welcome within,

This is our world,
World of reggae music,
Where Jah truth lives within,
This is our world,
World of reggae music,
Everybody is welcome within,

With this music comes the truth,
It's an offence to some but it is the truth,
Like the prophets before y
